

Reclaimed White Oak

Our reclaimed White Oak flooring ranges in coloration and character. A traditional hard oak flooring, it features knots, some nail holes, and occasional surface checking. This character, along with renowned strength and hardness, has made White Oak a wood of choice for homeowners, woodworkers, and green builders time and time again.

Reclaiming from industrial, residential, and agrarian sources, Longleaf Lumber goes out of its way to source antique oak timber that possesses unusual age, rustic character, and size.
